Teleconferencing and Public Hearing Protocol

Public hearing teleconferences are electronic extensions of the committee process, and are usually limited to a specific subject or bill. The chair may request that the testimony be limited to a certain length of time, and will decide the order of participation in the teleconference. Before beginning your testimony, state your name and who you represent, if applicable. Remember to identify yourself each time you speak. Indicate to the chair when you have concluded your testimony. Hearing protocol is selected by the committee chairperson. Teleconference protocol during formal committee meetings shall be designed to serve the agenda of the committee and accommodate the conventions of a legislative hearing.

Facilitating Communication between You & Your Legislators:

"In the district I represent, LIOs are located in Sitka, Ketchikan, Wrangell and Petersburg. I visit the LIOs to host meetings and other events when I'm in these communities. They enhance communication channels between the Legislature and the people of Alaska, serving as an intermediary and information source for all Alaskans. The LIOs provide information to citizens on a nonpartisan basis. LIO staff members are well-versed in the legislative process and can help you navigate the Legislature's website, testify at legislative hearings and communicate your thoughts to your legislator."

-Senator Stedman

"Southern Southeast Alaska is spread out amongst communities largely separated by water. In District 36, the Legislative Information Offices in Ketchikan and Wrangell are a valuable resource for the good people of southern Southeast, enabling them to participate in the legislative process. The LIO delivers non-partisan information and opportunities for our independent district." -Rep. Ortiz
